Gold Has a Longstanding Importance in Southeast Asia that Keeps Growing

Top 10 Gold Consuming Countries (in Metric Tons)

Southeast Asia is home to one of the fastest rates of digital payments adoption as the region's digital economy continues to surge. As such, it's only natural that traditional stores of value such as gold are receiving the digital treatment, as well.

Gold consumption in the 10 ASEAN countries accumulated to 309 tons in 2018, making it the third largest market for gold globally. The greatest turnover occurred in Indonesia, Thailand, and Vietnam, which together accounted for over 80% of the region's gold.
